RE: Extension of 2000 Registration Credential Cab Cards or Sixty-Day Temporary Permits

Dear Mr. Mamone,

Due to implementing a new IRP computer system, the jurisdiction of Indiana is requesting that all IRP jurisdictions and enforcement personnel refrain from taking enforcement action on Indiana issued registration credentials until 12:00 a.m., July 16, 2001. The registration credential cab cards and temporary permits due to expire on or after March 31, 2001 are being extended up to 12:00 a.m., July 16, 2001.

This extension applies to all commercial motor vehicles displaying an Indiana apportioned license plate, and/or carrying an Indiana registration cab card with an expiration date on or after March 31, 2001, and/or any Sixty-Day Temporary Permit issued by the carrier, permit issuing wire services, or the Indiana Department of Revenue's Motor Carrier Services Division with an expiration date on or after March 31, 2001.

Indiana issued registration cab cards and temporary permits are faxable documents. Faxed replications are permissible and are to be considered valid credentials by all jurisdictions.

Prior to taking any enforcement action (citations, tickets, permits, etc.) please contact the IRP office for verification of the registration of the vehicle in question. If on a weekend, the benefit of the doubt should be given to the carrier.

Please notify all IRP jurisdictions and ask those jurisdictions to inform their law enforcement community of this extension.

If there are any questions regarding this request, please contact me at (317)615-7340, Monday through Friday, excluding Holidays.

Sincerely,

Brian Lehane, Director
Indiana Department of Revenue
Motor Carrier Services Division
